* Unlike other training institutions, Conestoga College does not require trainees to pass language tests (ILSAT/CILISAT) for entry into program. Trainees must, however, pass language tests in order to graduate.

** Although some Ontario colleges, OLIS agencies and non-profit organizations do not require reference or criminal reference checks for entry into training programs, they inform trainees that these tests are mandatorily administered by hiring agencies.

*** St. Clair College developed its interpreter training module with Multicultural Council of Windsor and Essex County (MCC). Though MCC doesn't provide its own interpreter training, it houses interpreter courses offered by St. Clair College. Also, MCC administers the language tests (ILSAT/CILISAT) and, upon passing, students are referred to the interpreter training program at St. Clair College.
